The Secret

Who saw the petals
Drop from the rose?

I, said the Spider
But nobody knows.

Who saw the sunset
Flash on a bird?

I, said the Fish,
But Nobody heard.

Who saw the fog
Come over the sea?

I, said the Seagull
Only me.

Who saw the first
Green light of the sun?
I, said the night Owl,
The only one.

Who sway the moss
Creep over the stone?
I, said the grey Fox,
All alone.

My Only Wish

As I close my eyes
I can see and hear
The sound of nature both here and there.
Its beauty is so familiar to me ,
But yet I have never really seen.
I can only think of how wonderful it would be,
To walk through the grass and be just me.
To touch the flowers and watch them grow,
Is my only wish from away down below.
Taken for granted by many children,
Are the sights of nature that are certain.
Grant my wish and help me live,
To roam through grass and live again.

The Mountain

How do you look at the mountain in her majestic beauty?

Do you see her body, the rocks?

Or her ice-cold skin?

Do you feel the wind blow

her breath from deep within?

Do you see the way she moves,

The way mist rolls off her peak?

When the cold wind blows,

Do you hear her speak?

I do ... do you?
